Grand Blanc Arts Council Mission

It is the GBAC's mission to encourage cultural awareness in all forms and to coordinate and provide community events for citizens of all ages. By doing this, we are able to enrich people's lives and strengthen community through the arts.

About the Grand Blanc Arts Council

The Grand Blanc Arts Council (GBAC) was formed in 1997 by various members of the community consisting of business owners, artists, educators, and other people who had passion for and desire to promote, strengthen, and enhance the arts in Grand Blanc.

Meet the Instructors

Susan Hagen

Susan Hagen is a multi-published mixed media collage artist who creates beautiful and powerful feminine portraits. Through a skillful combination of color, symbolism and ornamentation each piece is transported to a different time and place.

Angela Hamilton

is an award-winning artist in en plein air and blogging and the first artist to win a Professional Development Mini-grant the MCACA. She obtained 2 B.A.'s in General Business and Advertising and continued her art education through Oakland Community College and the Flint Institute of Arts. Her work has been published multiple times.

Free Art Get-Togethers

Open Studio

Bring your supplies and materials and create art in a social setting. Open studio is intended to foster creativity and encourage experimentation in an atmosphere of cultural exchange, conversation, encouragement, and freedom of expression. Open to the public. Snacks available.

Location: Heritage Museum Lower Level

Schedule: Mondays 12 to 3 p.m. April 6th to June 29th

No meeting Memorial Day, Monday, May 25th.

See GBAC's Facebook Page for any cancelations or changes.

Plein Air Painting Get-Together

Plein air painting is about leaving the four walls of your studio behind and experiencing painting and drawing in the landscape. The practice goes back for centuries but was truly made into an art form by the French Impressionists. Open to the Public

Location: Physicians Park Pavilion

Schedule: Saturdays at 10 a.m. And then we find a location in which to paint.

Registration

Preregistration is required for all classes. Registration forms are available in the Catalog, on the website at www.grandblancart.org, or on the GBAC Facebook page. See the registration form on page 9.

Payment Method

Credit Card—accepted through the website, phone or mailed in form.

Check—Make checks payable to Grand Blanc Arts Council and mail in with registration form.

Cancellation Policy

In the event of a class cancelation:

- Due to the weather or instructor illness, a makeup date will be announced
- Due to low enrollment, a refund or credit will be issued.
