Grand Blanc Arts Council Mission

It is the GBAC's mission to encourage cultural awareness in all forms and to coordinate and provide community events for citizens of all ages. By doing this, we are able to enrich people's lives and strengthen community through the arts.

About the Grand Blanc Arts Council

The Grand Blanc Arts Council (GBAC) was formed in 1997 by various members of the community consisting of business owners, artists, educators, and other people who had passion for and desire to promote, strengthen, and enhance the arts in Grand Blanc.

Volunteer Opportunities:

If you are interested in volunteering for our non-profit organization, please let us know your availability and interests and we will put you to work! GBAC needs help with the all our programs and preparing for our classes. Please call us at 810-695-8933. Use the contact form at our website at www.grandblancart.org.

Meet the Instructors

Susan Hagen is a multi-published mixed media collage artist who creates beautiful and powerful feminine portraits. Through a skillful combination of color, symbolism and ornamentation each piece is transported to a different time and place.

Angela Hamilton is an award-winning artist in en plein air and blogging and the first artist to win a Professional Development Mini-grant the MCACA. She obtained 2 B.A.'s in General Business and Advertising and continued her art education through Oakland Community College and the Flint Institute of Arts. Her work has been published multiple times.

Schedule of Classes

Beginning Acrylics—Workshop

Instructor: Angela Hamilton

Learn the basics of the acrylic medium with color mixing, drawing and in a 2-hour crash course. This class offers an introduction to working with acrylic paints and how to apply paint to canvas along with applying different techniques. Students will discover what a versatile and forgiving medium acrylic paint is. Take home a finished painting and an apple. Little or no experience in painting is required for this class.

Location: Creasey Bicentennial Park South Pavilion.

Teens to Adults

Schedule: Saturday, October 3rd 10 am to Noon.

Deadline to Register: October 2nd, 2020.

Cost: $20, Supplies included.

Headdress Collage

Instructor: Susan Hagen

In this collage class you will learn to make a beautiful collage piece ready to hang. We will use collage pieces to make a headdress on an image.
